

Turlock Multibenefit Land Repurposing Program Application Period OPEN!

Join us at upcoming Technical Assistance Fairs

The East Turlock Subbasin Groundwater Sustainability Agency is dedicated to the sustainable management of groundwater resources in the Turlock Subbasin.

Where?

Cortez Hall

12937 Cortez Ave, Turlock, CA 95380

When?

- Wednesday, January 14th, 2026
- Wednesday, February 11th, 2026
11:00 am - 3:00 pm (both days)

What to Bring

- Project Ideas and Questions
- GAP login (optional)
- Project Application (if started; optional)
- Any supporting documentation for your project
- Appetite!

What to Expect at the Technical Assistance Fair

- Learn about incentive programs
- Technical assistance for project development, including:
 - Program Selection
 - Mapping Support
 - Project Benefits
 - Application Assistance
 - February Fair will have MLRP focus

Scan to Learn More

Submit a Project Application between January 1st, 2026 and February 28th, 2026

Join the Turlock Multibenefit Land Repurposing Program (MLRP) Team for BBQ, refreshments and to discuss your MLRP projects.

East Turlock Subbasin Groundwater Sustainability Agency and the MLRP Partners are here to provide you technical assistance!

Eligible Project Types May Include:

- Groundwater recharge projects
- Habitat restoration or conservation projects
- Agricultural land repurposing for sustainability
- Community-based land management initiatives